PIANO EXHIBI

ALL THIS WEEK.

An invitation is hereby cordially extended to the Musical Public to attend our display of Pianos this week. First class Pianos in choice new styles in most handsome Hungarian Walnut, American Burl Walnut, San Domingo Mahogany, English Oak and Golden Oak. Rich Piano Scarfs and Stools also displayed.

ALL PRICES MARKED IN PLAIN FIGURES ON ALL STYLES.

We have made many changes in the arrangement of our stock in different departments for the greater convenience of our patrons; greater facilities for testing Pianos and Organs, or examining and trying other Musical Instruments of any kind, or Sheet Music.

Give us a call, whether you want a Piano or not, or whether you may want one in a year or five years from the present time. It often takes time to become thoroughly satisfied in the selection of a Piano.

"HUB OF THE UNIVERSE," a fine late two-step, given to all visitors during this exhibit.

WAY OUT IN CHINA

Is to Reestablish Young Emperor Upon the Throne.

New York, Oct. 23.—The Rev. W. A. P. Martin of the Imperial university. Pekin, who is staying at the home of his son here, said of the China problem;

"The best remedy of the situation is the re-establishment of the young emperor, who possessed liberal and progressive ideas. If he can not be put on the throne one of two things will follow: Either native princes will divide the country or foreign howers will cut it up and rule through native princes. The latter i believe would be the better of the two."

asleep in the house of Minister Conger.

A few minutes after two o'clock the bentry who was guarding our legations burst into our room and rushing to the couch of Minister Conger cried; They're coming—you can hear the machineguns.

The cry rang out in the starlit night and echoet back from the big wails. In another moment came answering cries from each legation, windows were thrown copen and men and women springing from their bests hastily dressed and rushed out into the inclosure.

When the full music of the machine guns hurst fully upon our ears we became like children. We haughed and wept alternately. Woman fell on each others necks and men clasped hands. And to hear the roar of those machine guns.

And to hear the roar of those machine guns.

"Through the hours of the breaking day we listened to the shots as they drew nearer and nearer. At 10 o'clock there was a rattle of hoofs in the street cutside the gates of the legation swung back and in rode a haggard band of Silth riders. Further aid came later in the day."

How does pony flesh taste?" was "Not bad," was the reply. "Mule fiesh is better and donkey fiesh hest of all. The fiesh of a donkey is almost as good

FAILED TO SALUTE.

British Cruiser Psyche Disregards American Flag.

New York, Oct. 24.-The reported discourtesy of Captain F. B. Pelly, comanding the British cruiser Psyche, in failing to salute the American flag and running past quarantine at New York.

running past quarantine at New York, is the subject of animated discussion in manual circles at Washington, says a special to the Tribupe.

Captain Pelly will undoubtedly have an opportunity to explain his actions to the British adminally and the belief is expressed that he will suffer unless he had an excellent excuse for his apparent disregard of international properties. The regulations of all nuvies are practically identical on the subject of national salutes and they are especially designed to let no opportunity pass for manifestations of ordinary politeness. In entering New York harbor five or six forts must be passed before the saluting battery of the port at Fort Columbus is reached. It is barely possible that Captain Pelly was uncertain just where to salute, but nothing, it is said at Washington, can excuse his failure to find out after reaching his anchorage and his failure to give an exhibition of graciousness on leaving the port.

the country or fareign powers will cut it up and rule through native princes. The latter i believe would be the better of the two."

Rev. Dr. Martin graphically described how the foreign legations received the first news of their rescue:

"On the evening of August 13, or the evening before the rescue, the melanicholy world went around that only enough food was left to last for two more days. We had 83 mules and poules when the sleep began. All these had been eaten except six.

"The legations—cloven in all—were sunk in sleep when the clocks of our homes struck the hour of two. It was the morning of August 14. I myself was askeep in the house of Minister Conger. A few minutes after two o'clock the martin who was sending on the polising that the Bryshall poiding that the Bryshall poiding that the Bryshall country as well as to his country as well as to his country as well as to his political party, if he should take to the would cast his vote for President Medical that he is "forced to the convertion that he would be a recream the would be a recream that he is "forced to the country as well as to his country as well as to his political party, if he should take to the woods," and declares that, as the house is on fire," he will go to the polis and help save it, although he does not agree with all the methods of his appeals to the another than the would be a recream that he is "forced to the country as well as to his country as w

Mr. Dickinson fouches upon the financial question, still holding that the Bryan policy would result in depreciating the currency; declaring that the Philippine question is one for congress to settle; that the flag must not be hauled down while under fire, but says he is essentially a Democrat still. He concludes by saying that he takes his place by the side of Abram S. Hewitt, under whom he fought in the Tilden battle of 1876, waiting a call from men like him to reorganize the Democratic party and to reorganize the Democratic party and to rid the party and country of Bryanism.

Alvord Spent Stolen Funds In Royal Manner.

New York, Oct. 24-Up to 11 o'clock Cornelius I. Alvord, the defaulting teller of the First National bank, had not been arrested, and it was sald no news had been received of him. Mrs. Alvord left her home in Mt. Vernon and came to this city this morning. It is said she does not intend to return to Mt. Vernon.

It was learned today that when the Alvords went to Saratoga last summer they took with them all their horses and carriages. It took two cars to transport the outfit. The horses were blooded animals and the vehicles were all of the handsomest description. One set of harness alone is said to have cost $1500, and everything about the stable equipment was on the same scale.
